

The “One-Anothers” of Christian Community

“Salt is good, but if it loses its saltiness, how can you make it salty again? Have salt in yourselves, and be at peace with each other” (Mark 9:50).

Love one another (John 13:34; 15:12, 17; Romans 13:8; 1 Thessalonians 4:9; 1 Peter 1:22; 1 John 3:11).

Be devoted to one another in brotherly love. Honor one another above yourselves (Romans 12:10).

Live in harmony with one another (Romans 12:16; 1 Peter 3:8).

Accept one another, then, just as Christ accepted you, in order to bring praise to God (Romans 15:7).

I myself am convinced, my brothers, that you yourselves are full of goodness, complete in knowledge and competent to instruct one another (Romans 15:14).

Greet one another with a holy kiss (Romans 16:16; 1 Corinthians 16:20; 1 Peter 5:14).

I appeal to you, brothers, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that all of you agree with one another so that there may be no divisions among you and that you may be perfectly united in mind and thought (1 Corinthians 1:10).

So then, my brothers, when you come together to eat, wait for each other (1 Corinthians 11:33).

So that there should be no division in the body, but that its parts should have equal concern for each other (1 Corinthians 12:25).

You, my brothers, were called to be free. But do not use your freedom to indulge the sinful nature; rather, serve one another in love (Galatians 5:13).

Be completely humble and gentle; be patient, bearing with one another in love (Ephesians 4:2).

Be kind and compassionate to one another, forgiving each other, just as in Christ God forgave you (Ephesians 4:32).

Speak to one another with psalms, hymns and spiritual songs (Ephesians 5:19).

Submit to one another out of reverence for Christ (Ephesians 5:21).

Do nothing out of selfish ambition or vain conceit, but in humility consider others better than yourselves. Each of you should look not only to your own interests, but also to the interests of others (Philippians 2:3-4).

Bear with each other and forgive whatever grievances you may have against one another. Forgive as the Lord forgave you (Colossians 3:13).

Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly as you teach and admonish one another with all wisdom, and as you sing psalms, hymns and spiritual songs with gratitude in your hearts to God (Colossians 3:16).

Therefore encourage one another and build each other up, just as in fact you are doing (1 Thessalonians 4:18; 5:11).

Hold them in the highest regard in love because of their work. Live in peace with each other (1 Thessalonians 5:13).

Make sure that nobody pays back wrong for wrong, but always try to be kind to each other and to everyone else (1 Thessalonians 5:15).

But encourage one another daily, as long as it is called Today, so that none of you may be hardened by sin's deceitfulness (Hebrews 3:13).

And let us consider how we may spur one another on toward love and good deeds. Let us not give up meeting together, as some are in the habit of doing, but let us encourage one another—and all the more as you see the Day approaching (Hebrews 10:24-25).

Look after each other so that none of you fails to receive the grace of God (Hebrews 12:15, NLT).

Therefore confess your sins to each other and pray for each other so that you may be healed. The prayer of a righteous man is powerful and effective (James 5:16).

Above all, love each other deeply, because love covers over a multitude of sins. Offer hospitality to one another without grumbling (1 Peter 4:8-9).

All of you, clothe yourselves with humility toward one another, because, “God opposes the proud but gives grace to the humble” (1 Peter 5:5).
